NUMB. 3016

FRIDAY OCTOBER 28. 1743.

Malmö in Sweden, October 17.

H E Field-Marshal Baron Hamilton, accompanied by Lieutenant-General Count Spens, and several other high Officers, arrived here the Day before Yesterday, under the Discharge of 32 Pieces of Cannon. His Excellency visited the Fortifications, and all the Magazines of this Place, and then received the Homage of the Garrison, in the Name of his Royal Highness Duke Adolphus of Holstein-Gottorp, chose presumptive Heir to the Crown of Sweden. This Day Baron Hamilton set out in order to perform the same at Lundsoorn, and all the other Fortresses in the Province of Scania, where, it is thought, he will meet the same cheerful Reception he did here. The Regiments of Foot of Upland, Sunderland, and Westmåland, are arrived here from Carelsroon, and will speedily march to join the Army in this Province.

Venice, October 19. This Morning arrived an Express from the Count de Kaunitz, her Majesty's Minister at the Court of Turin, with Advice, that the French and Spaniards had been repuls'd, with great Loss, from Chatou Dauphine; and that his Majesty was present all the time of the Action. His Excellency's Letters also say, that great Numbers of regular Troops, and some Hundreds of Miquelets, had deserted; and that the King had sent most of the latter to Prince Lobkowitz, who has form'd a Body of Horse entirely of such Deserters, which are styled Partitanti. We are now assured, that Prince Charles of Lorraine, as soon as he quits the Army, will return hither, and not go to Brussels, as has been hitherto reported.

Goldstadt, October 19. On the 17th the Queen's Commissioners drew up an exact Inventory of all that was found in our Magazines, which amounted to more than any Body here imagined. There were 175 Brains Canon, from 12 to 24 Pounds; 30 large Mortars, from 13 to 100 Pound Weight each Bomb or Carcass; and such a vast Quantity of Ammunition and Provisions, as furnished a compleat Lading for 80 large Barks, into which they are put, in order to send them to Vienna. We still talk of seeing the Magistrates put in Possession of this Town, independent of the Austrian Commissioners; but whether any such Regulation will take Place is very uncertain. In the mean time, it is very evident, that General Berenczau is not a little suspicious, as to the Intentions of the Imperial Army; for which Reason he has ordered a Body of Hussars and Dragoons to observe them, in their March towards Pragow, and to prevent, if possible, their turning short, in order to fix themselves in any Part of this Electorate. The Austrian Garrison observes a very exact Discipline; and we are, in that Respect, much easier than while the Place was in the Hands of the French, who were every Day making some new Demand or other.

Berlin, October 26. His Majesty returned hither on the 21st of this Month from Potsdam, and dined with the Queen Regent, and all the Royal Family, and at Night they all supp'd with Prince Ferdinand. His Majesty has given Prince George-Lewis of Holstein, Brother to the Successor Elect of Sweden, a Regiment of Dragoons, at present quartered in Prussia; since which, that young Prince is gone to Hamburg. The Marquis de Valeri, Ambassador from his most Christian Majesty, received, this Morning, an Express from Paris, with Letters of the last Importance; which is what we are told, of late, of all his Dispatches. The King has actually sent a Plan of Pacification to the Dey of the Empire, in which he has settled the Pretensions of the Emperor, and the Queen of Hungary, in the most equitable Manner; and, in the Case, represents, in a most pathetic Manner, the Miseries to which all Germany must be subject, if the Powers at War continue, absolutely, to receive all Proposals of Peace; and has also directed his Ministers, to solicit earnestly the several States there assembled, to take such vigorous Measures, as may restore their own Authority, and that of the Head of the Empire.

From the Head-Quarters of the Dutch Auxiliaries, near Hamburg upon the Elbe, October 27.

The Regiment of Horse-Guards, and the Regiment of Foot-Guards, that make the First Column of our Troops, are arrived here, in three Marches, from Moesbach, and this Day they will continue their March towards Freiburg; the Ten other Divisions will take the same Route. Yesterday, and the Day before, the Prince of Orange treated all the Officers of the First Division, at his Castle of Orangetein, which is but two Leagues from hence. On the 24th his Serene Highness caused a handsome Present of Wine to be distributed among the Officers at Muntfeldt, and, at the same Time, gave Beef, Bread, Beer, and Brandy, to the Soldiers. The Prince has ordered the same Care to be taken of the rest of the Division. The Prince his Consort is again big with Child, and the young Prince his Daughter is weaned.

Hague, November 1. All our Letters from Italy agree, That the Spanish Army is in a very indifferent Situation at Rimini, and that they find it very difficult to obtain Provisions from Day to Day. M. Voltaire, since he arrived here, has taken a great deal of Pains to establish an Opinion, that the King of Prussia will soon bring about a formidable Alliance in the North; which, however, does not gain any great Credit among our Politicians. An Answer has been returned to the Marquis de St. Giles, in relation to his Complaint against the Inhabitants of Curaco, which he has sent by a Courier to Madrid.

HOME PORTS.

Bristol, October 25. Last Night arrived the Williamsburg, Tate, from Virginia.

Portsmouth, October 26. This Morning came to Spithead the Union, Clemens, from New-England for London.

Admiralty-Office, October 22, 1743.

THE Leave of Absence given to the Petty Officers and Foremastmen belonging to his Majesty's Bomb-Vessel the Salamander, expiring the 28th instant, and the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty having ordered them to be turned over to his Majesty's Ship the Worcester as Portsmouth. It is their Lordships Direction, that the said Men do repair down to that Ship, at the Expiration of their Leave: And for their Encouragement, their Lordships have directed Conduct-Money to be allowed them, and also Carriage for their Chests and Bedding; and they will be paid the Remainder of their Wages for the Salamander, and Two Months Advance, on board the Worcester, before she proceeds to Sea. But if they fail to repair on board the said Ship, when their Leave is expired, they will not only lose the aforesaid Wages, but Directions will be given for apprehending them, in order to their being tried at a Court Martial as Deserters.

If the Worcester is not ready to receive them, when they arrive at Portsmouth, they must apply to Rear-Admiral Stewart, who will cause them to be Victualled on board a Ship in Ordinary, till the Worcester is ready.

Thomas Corbett.

THE ELEMENTS OF ALGEBRA, in a New and Easy Method; with their Use and Application, in the Solution of a great Variety of Arithmetical and Geometrical Questions, by General and Universal Rules. To which is prefix'd, An Introduction containing a succinct History of this Science.

By MR. NATHANIEL HAMMOND, of the Bank.

Extract from the Account of this Book in the Works of the Learned.

The World has long complained of the Want of a proper Introduction to Algebra. Some are so very concise, as if they were contriv'd not to teach but introduce a Teacher; others again are larger, but wrote with so little Condescension to the Understandings of such as are altogether unacquainted with the Science, that they are of very little Use to those who are most inclined to make use of them. Whence it comes to pass, that few find it practicable to make any Progress in Algebra without a Master, tho' certainly the Science in itself is far from surpassing a clear Head, and a tolerable Understanding.

The Design of this Treatise, which is of a reasonable Bulk, and which contains nothing which is not solid, and to the Purpose, is to assist such as are engaged in teaching Algebra with a regular Method, and a large Stock of Examples; so that their Scholars may find Employment in their Absence; and to enable such as live in Country-Places, and must consequently want all other Tutors, except Books, to acquire such a Skill in this Science, as may enable them to spend a Portion of their Time agreeably in the Cultivation of their better Parts, and in rendering a natural Method of enquiry after Truth habitual.

The Treatise begins with a copious Explication of the Fundamental Principles of the Art, and of the Signs and Method of Notation used therein. The Author then proceeds to the several Rules, explaining them carefully and copiously in all their various Cases; so that with a moderate Attention it is simply impossible for a Person, who desires to be Master of Algebra, to miss of his End.

We never find this Writer advancing any thing out of its proper Place, or burthening the Mind of his Scholar with Rules, before they become necessary: He professes to have imitated the judicious Euclid in this Respect; and he has done it with equal Art and Felicity. By this means he has delivered the young Student in Algebra from that which is usually the most fatiguing Part of the Science, viz. The Doctrine of Surds, in the Manner in which it is usually taught. By the same Means he leads his Reader directly to Equations; and, by shewing him the Profit he will reap from this Science, encourages him to overcome all its Difficulties. But having thus laid a strong and rational Foundation, he moves more slowly through the rest of his Work, that whoever follows him, may be obliged to become Master of every Branch of the Art, so as to be a compleat Algebraist, before he quits his Book, and not a Smatterer.

Quadratic Equations, and the Art of managing Converging Series, the admirable Invention of the incomparable Newton, are here so clearly explained, and their several Cases so plainly set down, and so thoroughly explicated, that it may be truly said, there are no where else such Instructions to be met with. At the Cloze of the Book, we find abundance of Observations, necessary for enlightening such Minds as are willing to proceed still farther in analytic Discoveries; so that considering the Completeness of this Work, and that too is very moderate, it is as complete as possibly can be expected: And he who is thoroughly versed in it, will find no great Difficulties, when he proceeds to sublimer Studies. The Language is plain and natural, the Book is more copious than any other in Examples, and the Illustrations of them are so full and clear, that it is impossible to mistake their Meaning.

Where may be had,

An Enquiry into the Exility of the Vessels in a Human Body, wherein Animal Identity is explained, and shown incommunicable to any Individual throughout the whole Species. By CLIFTON WINTRINGHAM, jun. Fellow of the Royal Society. Price 1 s.

Concerning Gleets and Seminal Weaknesses of all Kinds.

ALL JUDICIOUS PHYSICIANS AND SURGONS allow, that nothing is more difficult to cure the Stubborn Gleets and Seminal Weaknesses, whether occasion'd by too severe purging for Venereal Injuries, violent Strains, Pollution sui, or any other Cause whatever; and that they are dangerous in their Consequences, as well as difficult to cure, is as certain, since they exceedingly weaken the Generative Faculties, infest the whole Nervous System, often bring on Hectick Heats, a Tabes Dorfia, or Constriction of the Back, or an Atrophy or Nervous Consumption, which frequently terminate in Death itself.

All such, therefore, who have the Misfortune to be troubled with Old or Stubborn Gleets, Seminal Effusions, Inflammatory Emotions, excessive Nocturnal Pollutions, or any Weaknesses of the Kidneys, Ureters, or Bladder, the Dieters, or Incontinency of Urine, or Difficulty of holding their Water, would doubtless be glad to meet with a certain, safe, and speedy Cure, which they most assuredly may, by taking only a small Quantity of a transcendent BALSAMICK RESTRACTIVE ELECTUARY, now published for a general Use, after having for many Years been experience'd never once to fail perfectly curing the most Stubborn Gleets known, in a few Days, without Difficulty or Trouble; as also other Weaknesses of the Back, Reins, Seminal Vessels, and Urinary Passages, which almost instantly cures, brings the rights and restoring all those Parts and Passages to their natural Tone and pristine Vigour, in a very extraordinary Manner, and by taking a few Doses of it only.

This transcendent BALSAMICK RETRACTIVE ELECTUARY, neither disagreeable to take, nor occasions the least Disorder, but is a wonderful Restorative in all Weaknesses and Diseases of Constitution of any Kind, and particularly strengthens the Back, Reins, Seminal and Urinary Vessels to an infinite Degree, insomuch that in any Debility of them, one Dose of it does more than ten of any other Remedy yet found out, and all Persons fatigued with Gleets or Seminal Weaknesses of any Sort, or Weaknesses of the Urinary Vessels, who take it, will in three Days time find it so very effectual, that they will be most agreeably surprised at it.

When a Medicine will infallibly accomplish such a speedy and perfect Cure of such difficult Maladies, as Gleets and Seminal Weaknesses are, as this Great Remedy truly and directly will, even after all other Means and Medicines have been tried in vain; too much cannot be said in it, and All who ever took it for any of the above-mention'd Purposes have readily declared.

The Price is but 6s. a Pot, altho' for its absolute Effect one Pot alone being sufficient in most Cases to accomplish a Cure, worth ten times as much, and by the Author's Special Appointment, is to be had only at Mr. RADFORD's Toy-shop, at the Rose and Crown against St. Clement's Church-Yard in the Strand, ready sealed up, with a Book of Instructions, which whosoever carefully reads will perfectly know, when the Gleet or Weakness he is afflicted with succeeds a Venereal Injury, whether all the Malady or the Foul Disease is intirely eradicated or not.

Note, Ask only for a 6s. Pot of Balsamick Electuary.

LONDON: Printed for M. COOPER, at the Globe in Pater-noster-Row,
